

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: April 3, 1995

SUBJECT: SB 1490 - HB 1349

This bill, if enacted, will be known as the Adult Functional Literacy Act. This Act is to be administered by the Division of Adult and Community Education in the Department of Education. Services will be located in, but not limited to, public housing, work places, correctional institutions, community colleges, local libraries, churches and schools.

To fund the program, the bill appropriates $4 for each adult Tennessean who has less than a high school education.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be an increase in state expenditures of $4,135,656. This estimate is based on 1990 census data supplied by the Tennessee State Planning Office which indicates there are 1,033,914 adult Tennesseans who have less than a high school diploma. ($$4 \times 1,033,914 = $4,135,656$)

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director
